

Orbico Bulgaria - Internship in Sales and Marketing with English

Orbico Bulgaria has launched its Internship program that provides an opportunity for paid internships in the fields of Sales and Marketing. The internship program will start on 1 July 2024 and all candidates can apply up to 30 April 2024.

Benefits

Interns are provided with flexible work arrangements tailored to their academic commitments, excellent pay, food vouchers, a sports card, company transport, holidays, and special gifts.

What distinguishes Orbico's internship program is that it includes some of the most desirable training in the modern business world on personal productivity, business skills and teamwork.

For our future colleagues, an international exchange to other countries in Europe is planned, through which they will have the opportunity to gain real practical experience in an international business and cultural environment.

Training

At Orbico, we are committed to helping our interns prepare for their future careers through training, mentoring, and working in a real business environment. Orbico interns will not only have the opportunity to gain valuable knowledge and skills, to collaborate with talented professionals, but they will also learn about the latest trends, technologies and best practices in international supply, sales and marketing.

People & Culture

And not only that. Our commitment is to show them that at Orbico, people are our greatest asset. And that we are not only colleagues, but also friends and family. Every year, interest in Orbico's internship program grows. More and more candidates take part in each edition and more of them stay permanently with the company.

The internship is suitable for 3rd and 4th-year students from different majors in Sales/Marketing and specialists with interests in these areas.

About Orbico

Orbico in Sofia has been operating on the Bulgarian market since 2003 and is one of the largest distributors and suppliers of logistics services in the country. The company works with large number of globally known brands ranging from beauty care products through food and nonfood products.

Candidates can apply by sending an application form and upload a short vertical video (up to 2 minutes) in which they present themselves, their strengths, interests, and achievements. Instructions for recording the video are following.

Application

Apply here until 30th of April: <https://www.orbicointernship.com/cities/sofia/>

1. Submit the Application form.
2. Upload a video.

Tell us about yourself in a short video!

Convince us of your candidacy and tell us why you would like to take part in the program. Show off your strengths, interests, or achievements. Do not be afraid also to talk about your weaknesses you are working on.

Try to express your energy and motivation and show why you would be a good fit! We appreciate consistency with the topic and a creative approach, but above all, we want you to present yourself truthfully!

The video should not be longer 2 minutes and size up to 128 MB, everything else is up to you. The material should be filmed in English.

The video doesn't have to be professionally edited, so don't worry if you are not a video editing master! :)
