

Quality Assurance Intern

Imperia Online JSC is one of the biggest game production companies in Southeastern Europe, part of Stillfront Group - a leading free-to-play powerhouse of gaming studios, listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. Popular with its 28 released games, the studio has over 60 million users worldwide and a team of 90+ professionals. The company's flagship title is Imperia Online - a medieval MMO strategy game, available on mobile, browsers, social networks and Steam.

Imperia Online JSC is looking for a Quality Assurance Intern to ensure we are releasing stable and high quality products across our growing and successful game portfolio.

What we are looking for:

- Basic troubleshooting and analytical skills;
- Good verbal and written communication skills;
- Self organized and detail oriented;
- Passion for Gaming;
- Must be proficient with computers and using mobile devices;
- Basic knowledge of testing software is required;
- Ability to test software and question features or behavior is desirable, but not required;
- Working level of English language.

What we offer:

- Great opportunity to start your career in the IT industry;
- Friendly work environment in a team of motivated and experienced professionals;
- Participation in complex international projects in the game industry.

